

I am absolutely against your proposal to relax ownership of stations. It is not in the public interest for a company to own more than one station in one market, because you need diversity. As it stands now all radio stations in my market report the same opinions about a story. Please do not do this.